WHAT

Our one day foundational session is the perfect way to start the transformational Elvis journey. We share all the key principles, behaviours and approaches that will help people master change every day. An intense experience where we work folk hard using human, interactive techniques. But we don't forget to make it fun! People leave not just inspired and energised but thinking differently about the world; equipped with skills to deliver immediate change and impact to their work and life.

WHERE

At a venue of your choice for 10 people to large-scale event based days.

WHAT YOU GET
